

Network Details

History International takes viewers around the globe to experience the history and culture of other countries. The view of the world from outside our borders is often very different from our own. History International helps to make sense of current events and creates an understanding of how we got to where we are today.